

Southfield Senior

King/Queen for a Day

Application

Southfield King and Queen for a Day Overview

The City of Southfield is celebrating its 50th birthday in 2008. As part of that celebration, the Commission on Senior Adults (COSA) will select a King and Queen, plus runners up, from among its senior citizens. The King and Queen and the runners up will receive prizes for being selected.

If you are interested in representing Southfield in this role, please fill out this questionnaire and submit it to:

Southfield Adult Recreation Center
24350 Civic Center Drive
Southfield, MI 48034

Also enclose a check for $5.00 made payable to Commission on Senior Adults. The $5.00 fee will be deposited into a separate bank account earmarked for use by the Commission on Senior Adults to pay for future senior citizen programs.

The application and check must be postmarked no later than December 31, 2007.

In January 2008 judging will take place during a special event. Applicants will be interviewed by the judges and will present their philosophy of life to the audience. After the interviews, the judges will select the King and Queen and runners up.
