

GREENSCAPING YOUR HOME LANDSCAPE:

Sustainable Landscapes with Native Plants, Mulch & Rainwater Recycling

Two free evening classes:

Thursday, February 11, 2010

Thursday, February 18, 2010

BLOOMFIELD TOWNSHIP LIBRARY
1099 LONE PINE RD., BLOOMFIELD HILLS
(Southeast corner of Lone Pine Rd. @ Telegraph Rd.)

*GARDENING SEMINARS CO-SPONSORED BY SOCWA, SOUTHEASTERN OAKLAND COUNTY WATER AUTHORITY
AND THE BLOOMFIELD TOWNSHIP LIBRARY*

PROGRAMS – REGISTER FOR EITHER OR BOTH

THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 11, 2010; 6:30 – 8:30 pm

ELEMENTS OF A SUSTAINABLE LANDSCAPE

- Rick Lazzell, Ecoscape Design & Instructor, Oakland Comm. College
- Carol Alexander, SOCWA Ecological Gardener
- Lillian Dean, SOCWA Healthy Lawns and Gardens

THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 18, 2010; 6:30 – 8:30 pm

HOME LANDSCAPE TRANSFORMATIONS WITH NATIVE PLANTS

- Trish Hennig, Owner, American Roots Native Plant Nursery
- John DeLisle, Homeowner, Southfield
- Mary and Gordon Wright, Homeowners, Franklin Village

REGISTRATION REQUESTED – SPECIFY DATES:
THURS. FEB. 11 and/or THURS. FEB. 18, 2010

Telephone Karen Bever, SOCWA: 248-288-5150 or

E-mail to: LFDean@aol.com

Name _____ E-mail: _____

Mailing address: _____ City: _____ Zip: _____

Funded in part through a grant to SOCWA from the Rouge River National Wet Weather Demonstration Program

