We are taking a special step-on guided bus tour through Detroit to learn more about the city's Underground Railroad history.

DOORWAY TO FREEDOM

Detroit and The Underground Railroad

Highlights include the accomplishments of Charles H Wright, the interesting story of The Monument to Joe Louis, known also as The Fist, and the intriguing tale of the Blackburn Affair and how they won their freedom. Additionally, we will walk and explore the special expanded Doorway to Freedom Exhibit at the Detroit Historical Museum. Next, we will hear a first-hand account of three fascinating homes of famous African-Americans in the Boston-Edison district. The drive along the waterfront showcases the "Gateway to Freedom" Memorial in Hart Plaza. Lunch will be at Andiamo Detroit Riverfront in the GM RenCen. Here we will enjoy a delicious meal of Chicken Piccata (olive oil, capers, white wine, lemon, herbs), House salad, side of pasta, veggie of the day, House dessert, and coffee, tea or pop. Unfortunately, on this trip there is no meal choice.

Thursday, April 16

The bus will leave the Parks & Recreation Building at 9:30 am
We plan to return at approximately 4:00 pm
Parks & Recreation Building, 26000 Evergreen Road
