Be on the Look Out Highlights:

Special Attention: Larceny from Vehicles

How to prevent this from happening to you!

-Citizens should never leave anything of value inside their vehicle. (Especially Handguns, Purses, Wallets, Cash & Cell Phones!)

- If you have a garage, you should park your vehicle in the garage and lock the garage.

- Wheel Locks are a deterrent but don't leave the wheel lock key in the interior of your vehicle, especially the center console or glove box. This is the first place they will look for the wheel lock.

-After parking your vehicle turn your wheels all the way to the right or the left. This will make it difficult to get the lug nuts off the front wheels.

-If you don't have a garage, try to park your vehicle as close to your residence as possible.

-If you are here any loud noises near where your vehicle is parked, especially during the late night or early morning hours, attempt to look outside without alerting anyone and if someone is tampering with your vehicle immediately calls 911, (Do Not

CCW/ Domestic F/A- 1- Arrest

04/08/2022 1:43am

18000 Block of Jeanette St.

Officer T. McCormick and Barlow were dispatched to 18000 Block of Jeanette for a reported family trouble. Officers arrived on scene and met with the R/P (mother of combatants). R/P advises she woke up the morning to a physical fight between her son and daughter. The son had the daughter into a choke hold when she had to intervene. The son stated he is withdrawing from marijuana and while he was watching TV his withdrawing started to hit and he became aggravated. When he becomes aggravated, he wants to throw items around. While he was explaining the events of what happened his sister came into his room, he overheard his sister tell Officer T. McCormick that he put her in a "choke hold". Once he heard this he motioned with his right hand towards his sister and said something. When he motioned with his right hand, Officer T. McCormick observed a small unknown object in his hand. Officer McCormick patted subject down for weapons and asked him if he had any weapons on him. He instantly dropped a pair of black brass knuckles onto the ground. The brass knuckles were confiscated, and the subject was taken into custody for Possession of Brass Knuckles and DV Strangulation.
