LFA/ Possession of Burglary Tools- 1- Arrest

08/04/2022 15:05

16000 Block of W Nine Mile Rd.
(Hospital Parking Structure)

Officers responded to call from witness that stated a B/M wearing red pants and a black t-shirt was walking through the parking lot pulling on door handles attempting to enter those vehicles.

Officer located a subject matching the description of suspect. Several Officers contacted the subject. He made admissions to having a brick in his pocket. Officers recovered the brick and two screwdrivers in his pockets. The subject also made admissions that he was looking for loose change in vehicles. As Officers were investigating, Hospital Security advised that they had a vehicle with a window broken out and the owner of the vehicle advise that some loose change and a small amount of currency was taken from her car. Officers inspected the attacked vehicle and entry into vehicle was consistent with a brick through the window. The subject was taken into custody for LFA & Possession of Burglary Tools.
