Home Invasion:
Date/Time	Address (block range)	Method of Entry	Description/Suspect Information
02/27/2023 6:16pm	16000 Oxley Rd. (Apartments)	Door was kicked in.	On February 27, 2023, around 6:20pm R/P called 911 to advise that she witnessed suspect breaking into her home, while viewing her surveillance camera. Officers responded to the victim's residence in the 16000 Block of Oxley Rd. (Apartment Complex) at 6:32pm. The responding officers indicated that there appeared to be forced entry into the residence but there was no suspect(s) located. Victim states that she recognized the suspect, and she has a PPO served against the suspect. She gave officers the name of the suspect and officers found no record of the PPO in the system. R/P was advised to get the PPO again and have it served properly. There was evidence of forced entry into victim's apartment and the suspect contacted victim and told her that she needed to get her door fixed. Investigation is on-going

03/02/2023 4:27am  1-Arrest	23000 Providence Dr. (Apartments)	Door was kicked in.	Officers were dispatched to the 23000 Block of Providence Dr. (Apartments) for a Home Invasion in progress. R/P reported someone was trying to kick in the door. Female suspect was yelling at the caller to open the door. R/P and his girlfriend were the only people inside the apartment. R/P reported he thinks he knew who the female suspect was but would not give any further information and disconnected. Second caller (girlfriend of original caller) reconnected and believed she heard a gunshot in the hallway. Officers arrived on scene and the suspect was not located. Officers spoke with the original caller. He explained to Officers that the intruder was his ex-girlfriend. She kicked at his door until it was forced open. The ex-girlfriend was able to kick in the door after multiple attempts. R/P attempted to place his body weight and forearm to prevent the door from opening. The suspect was able to force open the door. The door caused R/P to stumble back into the kitchen. A neighbor started yelling and that was when the suspect fled on foot. Suspect drives a Silver 2013 Kia Rio Officers located the vehicle in the apartment complex. Further investigation at the victim's apartment Officers recovered a loaded magazine on the couch and one spent round was in the ceiling just inside the apartment. R/P was not totally being cooperative and stated he did not see a gun or hear a gunshot? R/P's new girlfriend stated she was hiding in the bathroom during the incident and heard lots of yelling and one gunshot.

			She also advised she had been receiving a lot of harassing phone calls from the female suspect. Officers observed the suspects' vehicle to be nosed in and occupied by two subjects. The suspect was in the driver's seat of her vehicle. The suspect was wearing a purse. Officers requested permission to search her purse, which she stated "yes". A search of the purse located a handgun with the magazine missing. Officer attempted to clear the handgun, observing a spent casing that was stuck in the chamber. The handgun and casing both smelled like it had been recently fired. The suspect was taken into custody for Home Invasion, Discharging a Firearm in Occupied Dwelling and Felony Firearm. A Southfield Police Evidence Technician processed the scene and collected evidence.
From: 03/02/2023 1:00pm To: 03/02/2023 5:00pm	28000 Franklin Rd. (Apartments)	Status S - Stolen/Etc. Special Attention: Weapons Offense/ Student Brought a weapon to School. 03/02/2023 3:42pm 24000 Block of Garner St. (Private Academy) An anonymous person at the school informed an adult staff member that a student had a knife on him. The student was brought to the office and asked to empty his pockets. A steak knife that was concealed inside of his waistband was located. The staff member took possession of the knife and held it until officers arrived. The student has not had any recent problems with any students or teachers and made no threats. The student advised he was carrying the knife because some unknown person chased after him in Detroit when he was walking to the bus. The student never reported this incident. The student's uncle was summoned to the school to pick him up. The student was suspended pending a school board hearing.	A&amp;B/ CCW/ Possession of a Firearm in The Commission of a Felony/ Resisting Police Officer- 1- Arrest 02/28/2023 4:48am 27000 Block of Northwestern Hwy (Hotel) On 02/28/2023 Officers were dispatched to the 27000 Block of Northwestern Hwy. (Hotel) regarding a possible domestic situation. Dispatch advised a couple was heard fighting and things were being thrown around. Upon arrival officers located female victim sitting in the lobby crying and with obvious injuries. Investigation revealed that the male suspect (victims' boyfriend) was pimping out the female for prostitution and when he discovered that she did not want to do it anymore and she had no money he assaulted her numerous times causing injury that required hospitalization. Officers located the suspect in the back seat of a vehicle in the parking lot and asked him to exit the vehicle. The suspect exited the vehicle and began to take off running, fleeing from the Officers. Officers gave chase on foot, and the suspect was later apprehended in a wooded area by Officers. The suspect left his backpack where he first exited the vehicle and officers searched it. Officers located an extended .45 cal. magazine loaded with several live rounds in it. Officers interviewed the driver of the vehicle. The driver stated he was a Lyft driver and had picked up suspect from a gas station at Telegraph and 12 Mile. The suspect had asked him to drive him to his vehicle that was parked in the parking lot at the hotel. (Suspect had earlier fled from hotel on foot) Officers located a handgun that was missing the magazine under the passenger seat of the Lyft vehicle where the suspect was earlier seated. The Lyft Driver did not know suspect and provided a written statement as to the gun recovered was not his. The suspect was taken
