JOB TITLE:

Probation Supervisor

GENERAL SUMMARY:

With general supervision from the Judge for matters pertaining to probation and the Court Administrator for administrative matters, this working supervisor coordinates and directs activities of the professional and clerical support staff. While regularly performing duties of a District Court Probation Officer, assists staff with case problems and oversees the processing of cases under probation departmental jurisdiction.

PRINCIPAL DUTIES AND RESPONSIBILITIES:

1. Serves as a working supervisor, performs duties of a Probation Officer with an active caseload and supervises a professional and clerical support staff. Activities include participating in the employment process, training, assigning work, evaluating performance, authorizing leave usage, counseling, responding to grievances and initiating disciplinary measures, as necessary.
2. Directs and monitors all departmental activities, including reviewing pre-sentence investigative reports and substance abuse assessments for accuracy and completeness.
3. Assists staff with complex and difficult cases; solves problems by offering advice and alternative courses of action.
4. Reviews current court cases and statutes which affect departmental procedures, outlines and presents changes to staff. Evaluates and analyzes statistical trends regarding probation activities.
5. Establishes policies and procedures to ensure efficient utilization of probation personnel. Analyzes and makes recommendations on staffing needs and performs related administrative duties such as preparing activity and other reports as requested and/or required.
6. Conveys departmental policies, practices and procedures by regularly conferring with representatives of law enforcement agencies, attorneys, the public, civic organizations, other probation professionals, Judges and court personnel.
7. Develops procedures to maintain efficient documentation of case and departmental information. Oversees the retention and secure storage of all probationer records.

Education: Bachelor's degree in criminal justice, psychology, behavioral science, counseling, or a related field. Certification to complete assessments

Experience: 3 years' experience as a Probation Officer or in a related capacity. Some administrative/supervisory experience is also preferred.

The qualifications listed above are intended to represent the minimum skill and experience levels associated with performing the duties and responsibilities contained in this job description. The qualifications should not be viewed as expressing absolute employment or promotional standards, but as general guidelines that should be considered along with other job-related criteria.

Salary Range: $56,991-$78,040
