| 02/23/2020 11:58am | 23000 Clarkson St. | A screen was cut on rear sun-porch and two windows were attempted. It appears that entry was made through an unlocked front door. | On 02/23/2020, Officers were dispatched to a welfare check in the 23000 Block of Clarkson St. Dispatched advised a female was arguing with her ex-boyfriend who was not supposed to be in the home. Officers arrived on scene and spoke to R/P and her sister (witness). R/P advised she was laying in her bed watching TV when her bedroom door opened and her ex-boyfriend walked in. R/P told him to leave and he did not have permission to be there. Her ex-boyfriend started to yell at her when R/P's sister walked in the room and called the Police. The suspect fled the residence after the Police were called. Officers checked the residence for forced entry and discovered a screen to the back sun-porch had been cut allowing access to the porch. Officers also discovered two lower level windows that were attempted as there were fresh hand prints and smudges on the window showing attempts to open window. R/P and her sister weren't sure if they locked |

MDOP- 1- Arrest

02/17/2020 10:30pm

R/P states her boyfriend, dropped her off at her house in the 27000 Block of Charles Dr. They were having a verbal argument over another guy and she went into the house and locked the door. Her boyfriend began to bang on the doors and the windows and broke out a window in the living room. Suspect left in a White Work Van and a description of suspect was put out to Officers.

About an hour after Officers left the Charles address, Officers were dispatched to a second incident involving the same suspect damaging a vehicle in the 29000 Block of Red Leaf Ln.

Officers observed the White Transit Van matching the description of suspect vehicle on 11 Mile Rd and Evergreen.

The vehicle was stopped by Officers, the driver was identified as the suspect and he was taken into custody for both MDOP's.

Domestic Aggravated Assault-1- Arrest02/18/2020 6:40pm21000 Block of Indian St.

Several Officers were dispatched to the 21000 Block of Indian St. on a report of a Felonious Assault. The R/P stated his wife had cut him in the finger with a kitchen knife.

Officers arrived on scene and interviewed the two combatants. Victims wife made admissions to assaulting her husband because he was cheating on her. Suspect stated she bent her husband's fingers back, choked him and then attacked him with a knife cutting his fingers. Suspect was taken into custody for Domestic Felonious Assault.

| Several Officers were dispatch to the 17000 Block of Robert St. for a subject armed with a gun. Officers arrived on scene and met with the R/P. R/P states that her sons were playing a game and one of her sons (suspect) took some money from his brother. R/P's husband intervened and was talking to his son how it wasn't right to take money from your brother. Suspect got made and tried to hit his father. The father grabbed his son and held him in a head- lock. After the father let go the son went out to his car and got a gun. He returned to the residence and threatened to shoot his father who had barricaded himself in his bedroom. Suspect tried to force his way into the bedroom but he couldn't get the door open. The suspect fled the residence but not before firing one round. A Southfield Police Evidence Technician located a bullet hole in a mirrored closet door at the end of the hallway. Officers recovered one spent shell casing and parts of the spent round from the scene. The suspect fled the scene in a Chevy Cruze prior to Officers arrival. The suspect has been identified and incident is under further investigation. | Officer in charge at the front desk was asked to speak with a female at the records counter who was becoming belligerent towards records staff. The female was yelling at records personnel regarding her mugshots that were taken last week when she was arrested. She was demanding that records personnel give her the mugshots and all reports regarding her arrest. She was also asking why the Officers didn't read her Miranda rights when they were questioning her. These were all things that should be handled through the court system. Officer tried to explain things to citizen but she became upset and started using vulgar language towards the Officer and refused to leave the lobby. She also tried to instigate something by yelling, "Hands up Don't Shoot". The citizen continued to be disorderly, creating a scene, while other citizen(s) were attempting to do business at the front desk. After numerous attempts to get citizen to leave the lobby, Officers that were called into the lobby took the female into custody for Disorderly Person. |

Special Attention: Larceny from Vehicles How to prevent this from happening to you!

-Citizens should never leave anything of value inside their vehicle. (Especially Handguns, Purses, Wallets, Cash & Cell Phones!)

- If you have a garage you should park your vehicle in the garage and lock the garage.

- Wheel Locks are a deterrent but don't leave the wheel lock key in the interior of your vehicle, especially the center console or glove box. This is the first place they will look for the wheel lock.

-After parking your vehicle turn your wheels all the way to the right or the left. This will make it difficult to get the lug nuts off the front wheels.

-If you don't have a garage, try to park your vehicle as close to your residence as possible.

-If you here any loud noises near where your vehicle is parked, especially during the late night or early morning hours, attempt to look outside without alerting anyone and if someone is tampering with your vehicle immediately call 911, (Do Not Approach or Scare the Suspects Away) give Police Dispatchers as much information about the suspect(s) and suspect vehicles as you can. DWLS/ Possession of Heroin-
02/19/2020 3:23pm1- ArrestTelegraph Rd. & W Ten Mile Rd.

Officer was on routine patrol on Telegraph Rd. & Nine Mile when he observed a Black Ford Fusion leaving the parking lot of a private business. The Fusion had illegal front tinted windows and a LEIN & SOS check on the vehicle indicated the vehicle had no insurance. Officer pulled the vehicle over. The vehicle was slow to stop and Officer had to use his siren. After the vehicle stopped contact was made with the driver and front seat passenger (boyfriend). The driver immediately stated she didn't have a driver's license.

After the driver was asked to step out of the vehicle Officers observed her attempting to conceal something down her pants.

Officers recovered an empty tube that the driver stated contained marijuana. Officers inspected the tube and there didn't appear to be any marijuana residue inside the tube.

The driver was taken into custody for DWLS and searched. During the search of driver incident to arrest Officers recovered several small packages of suspected heroin wrapped inside paper folds. The driver made admissions that the packages were heroin and they were originally in the empty tube that Officers recovered. A sample of the suspected substance was Field Tested by a Southfield Police Evidence Technician. It tested positive for possible presence of Heroin. The driver was charged with DWLS & Possession of Heroin. The passenger was released on scene.

| Dispatchers until the Police arrive. -Lots of lighting around the area(s) that you park your vehicles is also very beneficial. Criminals don't like to work in well lighted areas. They prefer to work in darkness because it's difficult to see them. | CCW/ Assault with Intent to Murder- 1- Arrest 02/21/2020 4:12pm 29000 Block of Franklin Hills Dr. (Apartment Complex) On 02/21/202 at 4:12pm, Officers were dispatched to the 29000 Block of Franklin Hills Dr. reference a shooting. Dispatch advised Officers that a B/F in her 30's, wearing a black coat and driving a Red Chrysler 300 was shooting at a male in a White SUV. Officer arrived on scene and advised he was initiating a stop on a Red Chrysler 300, believed to be the suspect vehicle at the Complex just west of where the shooting took place. |

| Special Attention: Larceny of Packages that were ordered and delivered via Common Carrier. How to prevent this from happening to you! Recently several citizens have had packages that were delivered to their residences and apartments stolen prior to them retrieving the packages. Citizens can prevent this from happening by scheduling a specific time to have the package delivered and be waiting for the package. Citizens can also schedule the package to be picked up by themselves at the common carrier facility. | Additional units arrived to assist and spoke to a witness from the complex where the shots were fired. The witness advised that she observed a male & female (suspect) arguing out in the parking lot. The male was observed reaching into the Red Chrysler 300, grabbed what look like a set of keys and threw them into the grass away from the Chrysler 300. The male then walked over to a White GMC Yukon or Suburban and got into this vehicle. The female exited the Red Chrysler 300 and discharged 4-5 rounds from a Black and Silver Handgun at the passenger side of a White SUV that the male got into. The White SUV then backed out and left the area. The female looked around in the grass for a moment, and appeared to find her keys. The female then entered the Red Chrysler 300 and left the property toward the exit. After the suspect was stopped, Officers secured the driver and began their investigation. Note: There were two small children in the back seat of the suspect vehicle crying. Officers searched the vehicle and located a Black & Silver Handgun in the glovebox. Officers recovered the handgun. Officers also recovered a spent shell casing and a holster on the |
