Domestic F/A- 1- Arrest

02/13/2021 10:24pm

28000 Block of Franklin River Dr.

(Apartments)

Officers responded to the 28000 Block of Franklin River Dr. on report of an unknown medical emergency. The male R/P stated he was arguing with the female half when she suddenly went into the bathroom and was having an unknown medical problem. Officers arrived on scene and located female in the bathroom. She was lying in the bathtub and was unresponsive to Officers. The male subject was now becoming combative with Officers and he was calmed down and secured. Officers continued to render aid to the female until Life Support Unit arrived on scene.

Life Unit treated the female and transported her to area Hospital. Officers went to the hospital to speak with female to determine what had occurred prior to 911 being called earlier in the evening. As Officers were in route to hospital dispatch advised that Providence Security was calling to inform that the male R/P was in the ER lobby causing problems and the females father had also been there. When Officers arrived at hospital both persons were not present. ER Security stated that the male R/P was irate when he had come into the lobby, and that he had been turned away. Officers spoke with the female that had been transported to hospital for treatment and determined that her medical emergency was at least partially caused by a Physical Domestic Assault & Battery with Strangulation by the male R/P. Additionally, Officers were advised that he had threatened her life and that she had a recording of this. A short time later the male R/P returned to Providence ER and he was taken into custody for Aggravated Domestic, and Threats and Intimidation. Detective Wojciechowski presented case to OCPO. Warrant issued for Assault GBH and Aggravated DV.
