(Apartments)

Victim states herself and the suspect have a 5-month-old child in common.

According to Victim, herself and her ex had already been arguing before she went to his apartment to pick up her baby. When she got to suspect's apartment she started to gather her baby's things and when leaving he was upset and followed her to her car. After securing the baby in the back seat, R/P got into the driver's seat of her vehicle and her ex threw a water bottle at her and hit her in the back of the head. R/P threw the water bottle back at her ex. Prior to driving away her ex broke the side mirror on her vehicle.

R/P took her baby to her cousin's place. Her sister was there and she told them what had happened.

R/P and her sister returned to her ex's place with the intentions of damaging his vehicle. R/P had a knife and started to scratch her ex's car and he saw her doing it. He started to yell at her from his apartment balcony and he came outside to confront her.

As R/P was getting into her car she heard a loud pop and felt pain and pressure in her hip, saw blood, and realized her ex had shot her. R/P's sister drove R/P to the hospital and stood by for the Police.

A Southfield Police Evidence Technician responded to the hospital and took photos of victim's injuries and gathered other evidence.

Arrest of the suspect has been unsuccessful as of 10/8/2020.
