18000 Block of Goldwin St.

Officers were dispatched to Domestic Disturbance in the 18000 Block of Goldwin St. R/P (victim) states he has legal Guardianship of his wife who has been diagnosed with some type of Mental Health Issue. R/P lives with his wife and their son in common. R/P advises that his son wanted to remove his mother from the house to an unknown location. R/P told his son that he couldn't because he has legal custody. R/P's son then knocked his father into the wall causing injury and a hole in the wall.

R/P's son grabbed his mother and forced her from the home and put her into his vehicle.

Note: It was reported that the R/P's wife stated "No this isn't right" as she was forcefully taken from the house.

The vehicle was being driven by suspects girlfriend. R/P stood behind the vehicle so she couldn't leave. R/P's son then got behind the wheel and backed into his father's leg causing injury.

After the incident R/P received text messages from his wife's daughter asking to take his wife back to Texas. R/P told her no, that he was her legal Guardian. It appears that R/P's son and his wife's daughter have conspired to take his wife w/o his permission. The suspects have been identified and incident is under investigation.
