Commercial Burglaries:

Date/Time	Address (block range)	Method of Entry	Description/Suspect Information
From: 09/18/2019 8:00pm To: 09/19/2019 7:00am	28000 Telegraph Rd. (Commercial- Salon)	A brick was thrown through the front door glass.	Officers were dispatched to the 28000 Block of Telegraph Rd. (Salon) to investigate a B & E of the business. Officers arrived and observed the front door glass broken out with a concrete brick which was on the floor inside the business. The salon manager made the scene and showed Officers a video on her cell phone of the incident. The video shows at 4:43am on 9/19/2019 a White Car pull up outside the salon. A male subject with a dark colored hoodie, brown colored cargo shorts and white gym shoes throws an object/brick thru the front door breaking the glass. The male then enters the business and proceeds directly to the front counter and moves the computer monitor and picks up the cash box and exits the business. The white vehicle then drives off. Note: Officers spoke to an employee from the business next door who advised she found a men's wallet hanging on the broken glass of the business around 7am when she arrived for work. Information was obtained from the wallet and a suspect has been developed in the incident. Incident is under further investigation.

From: 09/18/2019 8:00pm To: 09/19/2019 6:40am	19000 W Twelve Mile (Commercial- Cleaners)	Gray brick was thrown through front door glass.	Victim states sometime between 8:00pm and the following morning at 6:40am someone threw a Gray Brick through the front door glass and made entry into business. Once inside suspect(s) took two cash drawers containing an undisclosed amount of currency. No suspect information.
09/19/2019 12:32am	21000 Telegraph Rd. (Commercial- Salon)	Window on the north end of business was broken out. >>>>>>>>>>>>>>>>>>> This is great. All Businesses should take note and never leave cash in their cash drawers! >>>>>>>>>>>>>>>>>>>	On 09/19/2019 Officers were dispatched to the 21000 Block of Telegraph Rd. to investigate a B&E of the business. (Salon) The owner advised he got a call from his alarm company at 12:32am. The alarm company advised there was a motion alarm at his place of business. Victim checked the video on his cell phone APP however did not see any activity and thought it was a false alarm. When victim arrived to open the salon in the morning he observed a front window on the north end of the business broken out. Victim checked his video system again and observed a heavy set black male on a bicycle sitting outside his salon about 12:30am. After several minutes, the suspect is seen breaking the window with an unknown object and then entering the business via the broken window. Once inside the business, suspect goes to the front desk area and looks thru several drawers and then leaves the building. Nothing was taken during the crime, there was no cash in the cash drawers.

From: 09/21/2019 8:00pm To: 09/22/2019 5:30pm	29000 Telegraph Rd. (Commercial- Foods)	Status S - Stolen Description Cash	R/P (Shift Leader for Business) advises when she arrived at the store at approx. 5:30am. R/P unlocked the door but was unsure if the door was already unlocked. There was no sign of forced entry. As she continued to do her normal daily activities as shift leader, she opened the safe to count the money. R/P noticed that the safe was empty. She also noticed that the envelopes for tips were empty as well. R/P notified her manager. The manager advises that she suspects a former employee that quit abruptly and never returned his keys, he also has the code for the alarm system and has a combination to the safe. Suspect has been identified and incident is under investigation.

Home Invasion:

Date/Time	Address (block range)	Method of Entry	Description/Suspect Information
09/16/2019 7:33am	25000 Saint James (Residential- Condo's)	Overhead Garage Door was left open. No signs of forced entry.	Victim stated he exited his condo and went to the store in his vehicle around 7:00am. He left his large garage door open. R/P claimed the interior garage door was locked, but he was not certain if the front door to the condo was also locked. When R/P returned home a short time later, he observed a vehicle parked near his open garage. The vehicle sped off when R/P pulled up. R/P described the vehicle a silver sedan, unknown occupant(s). R/P pulled into his garage and observed a black female standing in the doorway of his interior garage door, which was open. As R/P parked his vehicle, the female exited the garage, walking past R/P and away from the residence. R/P confronted her, however she did not respond. R/P described the female as short, medium build, less than 25 years of age, wearing a white t-shirt and gray pants. R/P followed the female in his vehicle and notified police. R/P claimed he does not know the female personally but recognized her from past social gatherings. The subject was located by Officers and questioned. She denied being on R/P's property. There was no forced entry into the residence and nothing was found missing from the residence. The suspect was identified and released pending further investigation.

From: 09/16/2019 9:00am To: 09/16/2019 5:00pm	21000 Sherman Ave.	Screen was removed on kitchen window. No signs of forced entry on the window itself.	Victim states he left his home around 9:00am and returned around 5:00pm. He discovered someone had entered his home thru a kitchen window on the east/back side of the home. Once inside the home the suspect(s) stole a small safe and several watches from the master bedroom. During the incident, the suspect(s) forcefully removed the alarm control box off the wall in the hallway.
From: 09/18/2019 3:31am To: 09/18/2019 8:00am	25000 Southwood Dr.	Suspect(s) entered victim's vehicle and used the garage door opener to enter the garage.	Victim states she was alerted by her garage door opening at 3:31am. Victim looked out and saw the interior light on in her vehicle. Victim thought it was her father and didn't check any further. At 8:00am victim was notified by her neighbors that her vehicle and garage door were open. Victim inspected her vehicle and garage and nothing appeared to have been taken. The vehicle had been ransacked. There was a black backpack recovered adjacent to victim's vehicle. Officers investigating developed a possible suspect or possibly another victim through a check book that was in the backpack. Incident is under investigation.

No forced entry was observed.	Officers responded to Home Invasion just occurred. Victim reports that he was only gone for 20 minutes between 10:00am- 10:20am. When he returned he discovered his Flat Screen TV missing and his door wall was standing open. According to a witness (maintenance worker) he was in the south parking lot and observed a B/F carrying a T.V. The maintenance worker also noticed that the victim was on his back porch of his apartment and an unknown subject (Suspect#2) was in one of victim's upstairs windows throwing things out the window. The female carrying the T.V then noticed him and placed the T.V down next to a small privacy fence and ran back north. She was wearing a red and white stripped shirt with blue jeans and medium length hair. The maintenance worker immediately phoned a co-worker who observed possible suspect vehicle drive away from the area with two occupants. He described the vehicle as an Older Gray Chevrolet 4-door sedan. On 09/23/2019 victim contacted our Detective Bureau and advised that her neighbor has some video of the incident. The video shows a vehicle pull up, a female gets out of the vehicle walks up to the door and into victim's residence. Further video shows a black male, tall, no shirt, red shorts go into the residence. The female opens the trunk of the vehicle, possible a Gray Chevy Impala, and goes back into the home. Incident is under investigation.
