1- Arrest

09/26/2020 5:10am

16000 Block of Oxley Rd.

(Apartments)

Officers were dispatched to a Domestic Assault. The male half, later identified, left the scene prior to Officers' arrival. Additional units were sent to the area because the suspect was supposed to be armed with a knife.

Officers arrived on scene and spoke to the female R/P. She stated that her boyfriend was upset with her and when she got home he told her to pack up her things and get out. He then started to throw things at her and damaged several items including puncturing all her tires on her car. He then assaulted her numerous times. Victim eventually ran outside and her boyfriend chased after her. He caught up to her and began dragging her back to the apartment by her hair. They ended up back in the apartment where suspect began assaulting her again. Victim was eventually let go and she went to a neighbor's and called Police. A Southfield Police Evidence Technician arrived on scene and took photos of victim's injuries and damages.

A short time later Southfield Officer observed a male matching the description of suspect run north across Nine Mile. Officer activated his emergency overhead lights, exited his scout car, identified himself as a police officer, and ordered suspect to stop.

The suspect fled on foot north through the parking lot at 16000 Providence. Officer pursued suspect through the parking lot, continuing to give him instructions to stop.

The suspect continued to flee across Providence Dr. until a second Officer blocked his escape route and he was taken into custody for Domestic Assault and R&O.

While in the back seat of Officers patrol vehicle the suspect started throwing up. He was removed from the patrol vehicle and unhandcuffed and put onto his side. Officers checked for a pulse and there was none. Officer began CPR and the suspect began to breathe again. Shortly after this the subject stopped breathing again. Officer began CPR again. After several compression's the subject started breathing again.

A Southfield FD Life Unit arrived on scene and transported the suspect to Providence Hospital for treatment. At the hospital suspect became combative and had to be four pointed by hospital security. The suspect was eventually cleared from the hospital and transported to the Southfield Jail. During the transport to the jail the suspect damaged the Patrol Vehicle by kicking the inside of the door panel. A Southfield Police Evidence Technician took photos of the damage to the patrol vehicle.
