3) Home Invasion of Occupied Dwelling

05/02/2018 11:30pm

27000 Block of Fairfax

Female occupant was in her bedroom and the male occupant was in the basement. Both heard footsteps on the main level of their home and each thought it was the other. Upon both victims meeting on the main floor it was discovered that the kitchen window was open and an unknown suspect entered the home. The female victim observed a Flat Screen TV was taken as well as their 2007 Gray Ford Explorer. The vehicle was taken with keys that were on the kitchen counter. No suspect information.

Domestic/ Aggravated/ Felonious Assault-

1- Arrest

25000 Block of Prairie Dr.

Numerous Officers responded to residence on reports of shots fired and people can be heard screaming. Officers arrived on scene and observed subject standing in front of residence and another subject standing in the doorway to residence. Officers made contact, and secured all individuals including a B/F who was ordered out of the house. Officers cleared the house and declared it safe.

Investigation revealed that the three subjects live together, husband, wife and wife's son who has been diagnosed with possible Mental Health Issue's.

A domestic dispute was in progress when the son got a knife and threatened his step-father. The step-father got his handgun and at some point, when threatened, he shot four rounds into the air to scare his step-son. The step-son then threw the knife onto the neighbor's yard and they continued to argue until the police arrived.

The step-son was taken into custody for evaluation and possible F/A charges.
