Obstruct Officer/ Felony Warrant-

1- Arrest

04/26/2016

4:43pm

W Eight Mile Rd. & Northland Dr.

Officers stopped vehicle for traffic violations.

The passenger in the vehicle gave Officers false information about his identity. Officers were able to pull up a picture of subject with his true identity. It was likely that the passenger gave Officers false information about his identity because he had several warrants including a Felony Warrant for Aggravated Assault out of another jurisdiction.

Suspect was taken into custody for Obstructing Police.

Reckless Discharge of a Firearm/ MDOP/ Minor Consuming Alcohol- 1- Arrest

04/28/2016 12:58am

25000 Block of Evergreen Rd.

(Commercial New Construction)

Officers were dispatched to the area on report of numerous gunshots being heard in the area.

Officers while conducting an area check located a door window that appeared to have been broken out to the rear of building under construction in the 25000 Block of Evergreen Rd.

While investigating, Officers observed a subject inside the building. Officers detained suspect. K-9 Officer and other Officers conducted a search of the building. During the search, a shotgun was located in a room on the second floor.

Officers recovered ammunition from suspect's pocket. Suspect was dressed in his pajamas with flip flops on his feet. Suspect was not a construction worker nor did he have any business in the building. The suspect told Officers that there was a shot gun that he left inside the building on the second floor. There were also obvious signs of buck shot on the wall adjacent to the broken out window.

The suspect told Officers that he lived in the area, he was taking medication for anxiety, and he had consumed several alcoholic beverages. Suspect was under the age of 21.

Suspect was taken into custody for MDOP, Reckless Discharge of a Firearm and Minor Consuming Alcohol.

Larceny by False Pretenses/ Identity Theft- 2- Arrests

04/27/2016 4:04pm

28000 Block of Telegraph Rd.

(Car Dealership)

Southfield Detectives were contacted by another jurisdiction Police Department that they were working on an identity theft complaint. The complainant reported that someone unknown to him has been using his personal information, to include his social security number, to make fraudulent purchases.

Additional information was this person had completed paperwork to purchase a vehicle at a Car Dealership in Southfield.

Southfield Police Detectives contacted the dealership and confirmed that unknown person using victim's identity had filled out a credit application to purchase vehicle and they were just waiting for credit approval and for person to come in and pick up the vehicle.

The suspect had sent a Michigan Driver's License to the Dealership. The Driver's License had victim's identification on it with another person's picture on it.

The manager from dealership met with the B/M suspect who identified himself as the victim. (Victim of identity theft was a W/M.) He was accompanied by a B/F. The couple posed as being married.

The picture on the Driver's License that was provided earlier was that of the B/M suspect.

The couple was directed to the financial department to complete the financing of the vehicle they were about to purchase.

After all of the paper work was completed and signed by suspect the couples were arrested by Southfield Police Detectives for Larceny by False Pretenses.
