Disorderly Conduct/ Resisting & Obstructing Police

1- Arrest

09/04/2015

11:46pm

18000 Block of Westland Ave.

Officers responded to residence reference Loud Noise Complaint. When Officers arrived on scene they met with complainant and began to interview him. They were informed that suspect (neighbor) was yelling and screaming profanities at his side window for the last 3 hours.

As Officers were interviewing complainants the suspect came out of his residence and started screaming profanities at complainant in Officers presence.

Officers attempted to calm neighbor down and he responded by screaming at the Officers, screaming profanities at them as well and causing a disturbance.

At this point Officers attempted to take suspect into custody for Disorderly Person. The suspect fled into his residence.

Officers attempted knocking on suspect's front door to get him to come outside. Suspect opened the door and came charging out at Officers with a metal object in his hand.

Officers fought with suspect as he resisted numerous times.

Officer eventually got suspect handcuffed and took him into custody.
