R/P stated he left for work at 9:00am on 6/24/2019. He returned home at 7:30pm the same day. R/P observed his cable box disconnected in his living room, bedroom drawers open, jewelry missing and two pair of gym shoes were taken. R/P thought somebody was playing a joke on him because other valuables were not touched. R/P contacted his friends and they all advised that they didn't take anything from his apartment. No suspect information.

From: 06/26/2019 1:10pm To: 06/26/2019 1:17pm	28000 Willow Ct. (Apartments)	The apartment door was pried open.	Officers were dispatched to the 28000 Willow Ct. (Apartments) for a reported Home Invasion. Officers arrived on scene and spoke to R/P and the Facilities Director. They advised Officers that they were about to go into Apartment Building when they were greeted by a B/M wearing all Green clothing that held the door for them and left the building. They observed the subject get into a U-Haul Truck. Just after entering the building they were advised by the main office that an apartment in this building had just been broken into. They went to the apartment in question and confirmed a good Home Invasion. They went back out to the parking lot and the suspect that let them into the building and the U-Haul Truck were gone. Interview with tenants revealed that they heard noise at the apartment door. One of the tenants went to check and he observed the door opening. He pushed his body up against the door and stated who is at the door. The subject fled on foot. The suspect was wearing green clothing like what the subject was wearing that got into the U-Haul Truck. A Southfield Police Evidence Technician processed the scene and observed that suspect put something over the peep hole at the apartment directly across from the attacked apartment. (Commercial- Donuts) Officers were at business in the 24000 Block of Telegraph Rd. when they were approached by an employee advising Officers there was a female in the bathroom of the establishment for an extended amount of time (squatter) and she was concerned about this person. Officers contacted this person and she exited the bathroom. The employee advised this person that she can't stay in the business and hang out in the bathroom for extended periods of time. The subject responded to the employee that she would do whatever she wanted and started yelling obscenities at the employee. At this point Officers intervened and advised the subject to calm down, as she was now disturbing the business. (8-10 patrons in the business) The subject started using profanity towards the Officers and advised them she would not calm down. Officers advised the subject on trespassing and requested her ID for identification. The subject stated she was not leaving and wouldn't give Officers her ID. Officers advised the subject she was under arrest for Trespassing. Officers attempted to take subject into custody and she punched one of the Officers in the chest. Officers used the necessary force to affect the arrest and the subject was taken into custody.
