Unarmed Robbery:

03/22/2018
4:46pm

27000 Lahser Rd.
(Bank)

An undisclosed amount of cash was taken from teller.

R/P teller for Bank states he noticed the suspect come in the bank from the south door that faces 11 Mile Rd.

The suspect was in a line for a female teller who was busy. R/P told the suspect he could help him at his window.

The suspect came over to R/P's window and slid him a note through the glass. The note demanded certain denominations of money from his register. The note did not contain any threats, no weapon was implied, and R/P didn't see any weapons on the suspect's person. The note was written on the back of a bank withdrawal slip in blue ink.

R/P looked at the suspect for a while before reaching in his drawer and giving him what he had asked for.

The suspect took the note he wrote and the cash and put the cash in a bag he was wearing over his shoulder. The suspect then left the bank.

R/P estimated the suspect to be around 5'-8"-5'-10" and slim. The suspect was wearing a beige colored zip up jacket with pockets on the front. The suspect had a black bag with a strap around his shoulder. He was wearing sunglasses and had medium length wavy hair.

The suspect was last seen fleeing on a bicycle, heading east on 11 Mile Rd.

Tips:

- ❖ Always be aware of your surroundings and report suspicious incidents or persons to your local police
