Home Invasion:

Date/Time	Address (block range)	Method of Entry	Description/Suspect Information
From: 05/16/2016 8:00am To: 05/16/2016 1:14pm	26000 Berg Rd.	Rock was thrown through bedroom window.	Victim states he activated his alarm and left residence at 8:00am. Victim returned to his residence at 11:00am and turned his alarm off. At approx. 1:14pm victim discovered that a screen had been removed from a bedroom window and a rock was thrown through the window. Entry was made into the residence and victim states a closet door and several dresser drawers were opened and gone through. The alarm system apparently doesn't have sensors in this area of the residence so there were no alarm activations. Victim states nothing is missing from residence. A Southfield Police Evidence Technician processed the scene and developed latent print evidence from scene.

05/17/2016 3:53pm (Assault & Battery Also)	20000 Kensington Ct. (Residential Apartments)	Apartment door was kicked in.	Victim states he was at home when he heard a loud noise at the apartment door. When victim went to see what it was he discovered that the door had been kicked in. There were several B/M suspects including a subject that victim had gotten into a fight with a few weeks prior to this incident. All of the suspects jumped victim and started hitting him. The subject that he got into a fight with a few weeks earlier just stood by and watched the others assault him. All of the suspects then fled in a Blue or Black Chevy Impala. Note: Victim and suspect both go to Southfield Schools. Investigation revealed that there have been a series of incidents involving victim and suspect(s). Victim's mother advises that the issue has been resolved with the boys (victim and suspect) and other parties involved. She said all of the parents and responsible adults have exchanged phone numbers and are attempting to resolve matter.

After getting other suspects handcuffed the male and female were still screaming and yelling at Officers.

Officers attempted to take the male suspect into custody and he also resisted arrest. Officers eventually took this subject into custody as well. The female suspect managed to flee area.

In all, three male subjects, all related (brothers) were taken into custody.

Information from Hospital Security*:

Incident originally started in the parking lot when several subjects including the suspects arrested were observed by Security drinking at their car and were causing a disturbance near the entrance to the hospital. When asked by Security to leave the property the suspects assaulted Security Officers.

Possession of Marijuana & Methamphetamines-

2- Arrests

05/21/2016

3:17am

20000 Block of Van Buren St.

Officers were dispatched to the area on a suspicious vehicle cruising in the area.

Officers located the vehicle cruising behind several businesses along 8 Mile Rd. west of Beech Rd. The vehicle was then observed pulling to the rear of business in the 25000 Block of 8 Mile Rd. and shut its lights off.

Officers observed two subjects exit the vehicle, one with a flashlight. The subjects started walking around the rear of the building near the rear door dumpster area.

Officers pulled up on suspect vehicle (Silver Oldsmobile Silhouette) Investigation revealed that the two female occupants were "Dumpster Diving".

Officers observed suspected marijuana in their vehicle.

A Southfield Police K-9 Unit conducted a Sweep of the interior of the vehicle. As a result of the sweep suspected marijuana was recovered and suspected methamphetamines were recovered from a wallet inside vehicle.

A Southfield Police Evidence Technician Field Tested the suspected marijuana and methamphetamines. Both tested positive for possible presence of illegal substances.

Both of the vehicle occupants were taken into custody.
