| 15000 Town Center (Hotel) | Cash was taken. | Victims (2- females) state they met up with suspect (male friend) at Hotel in Southfield. Victims state that they met up with suspect who was supposed to get them a room at the Hotel for a discounted rate. (Suspect knew someone that worked at the Hotel) When suspect got into the car with victims the two females allege that suspect pulled out a handgun and robbed the girls of their cash. After reporting this to the Police the suspect was located by Southfield Officers and taken into custody. It was later learned through interviewing suspect and reviewing evidence and information obtained from suspect that the two females had voluntarily given suspect the money. The suspect did attempt to get a room for the two females but his friend wasn't working at that time. Suspect informed the two females of this and stated he would attempt again in about an hour when his friend was to start work. The Victims for some reason didn't think the suspect (male) was going to come back so they lied about the Robbery. |
