Description

APPLE IPHONE XR

Officers were dispatched to the 21000 Block of Duns Scotus for a report of a male tearing up his ex-girlfriend's home.

Officers arrived on scene. The suspect had already fled the residence in his Ford Conversion Van. R/P states her ex-boyfriend arrived at the address and began banging on her front door. R/P opened the interior door but not the storm door. R/P walked away from the door to put on a pair of pants and that was when her ex-boyfriend kicked out the lower glass portion of the exterior front door. He then reached into the door and unlocked it and entered the residence.

R/P gave her ex-boyfriend his jacket and asked for her cell phone back. He said no and fled because R/P called the police.

R/P states on a previous date, 11/03/2020 her ex-boyfriend came to her residence and was allowed into the residence. When it was time for him to go though, he refused to leave. R/P attempted to call 911 on her cellphone. As R/P was attempting to call 911 her ex-boyfriend grabbed her cellphone from her hand and pushed her to prevent her from retrieving her phone from him. Suspect then left the residence with her cellphone. The suspect has been identified and incident is under investigation.
