Commercial Burglaries:

Date/Time	Address (block range)	Method of Entry	Description/Suspect Information
From: 11/28/2016 12:30am To: 11/28/2016 12:40am	28000 Franklin Rd. (Banquet Hall)	Front door was forced open.	Officers responded to an alarm at Banquet Hall. Officers arrived and found the front door open. The manager for hall reviewed video surveillance and discovered the bride and groom from wedding reception that night broke into the hall after they closed. Officers reviewed surveillance video and observed the following: An unknown dark vehicle pulls up out in front of the hall. A black female in a white wedding dress is observed pulling violently on the north entry door. The door pops open and she enters the hall. A black male wearing a white tuxedo jacket enters the hall and then goes into the men's bathroom. The female is observed walking in north hallway. She is then observed entering the large banquet room. She rummages around the bar area and then is joined by the male who uses his cell phone as a flashlight. The two enter the kitchen area and are rummaging through a store room and food warmer. It appears that the female "squatted to urinate" on the kitchen floor. Upon exiting the female is observed carrying a bottle of liquor. R/P identified the male and female as the bride and groom from a wedding reception held that night. The just married "Partners in Crime" have been identified and incident is under investigation.
