Commercial Burglaries:

Date/Time	Address (block range)	Method of Entry	Description/Suspect Information
From: 10/26/2015 4:30pm To: 10/27/2015 10:00am	24000 Telegraph Rd. (Commercial-Building Supplies)	South perimeter fence was cut.	R/P (Representative for business) stated that their storage yard was locked and intact at 4:30pm on 10/26/2015. Upon returning to the storage yard the following morning at 10:00am the south side perimeter fence was found cut. R/P advised that several tools were taken and possibly several bundles of Wall Studs.
From: 10/29/2015 10:15pm To: 10/29/2015 22:20	26000 Northwestern (Commercial- Office)	No forced entry. Building is under renovations and still open at sections.	R/P called and reported that he witnessed 4 suspects in the building via CCTV cameras that he was monitoring over the internet. Numerous officers responded to the location and found that the building was undergoing major renovations and was not secure. All of the subjects had hoodies on covering up their faces. R/P states that after speaking to all the construction crews and surveying the construction building further, it was determined that several drywall tools were stolen from the jobsite.

10/30/2015 4:08am	23000 W Eight Mile Rd. (Commercial- Gas Station)	The metal gate on front door had been cut open and the inner glass door was smashed out.	Officers responded to B&amp;E Alarm at the Gas Station on 8 Mile Rd. (Alarm Trip @ 4:08am) As Officers were responding a citizen called and reported seeing two suspicious B/M wearing scarves and hoodies walking around the business. Officers arrived on scene and discovered Good B&amp;E. The metal gate on front door had been cut open and the inner glass door was smashed out. The suspects were gone prior to Officers arrival. It didn't appear that suspect(s) were able to gain entry to the office area. The owner showed up and advised nothing was missing from the business. Video surveillance confirmed there were two suspects in hoodies tampering with a wire in back of the building. One of the suspects was wearing what looked to be a large backpack on their back.
