Commercial Burglaries:

Date/Time	Address (block range)	Method of Entry	Description/Suspect Information
09/17/2015 6:10am	20000 W Eight Mile Rd. (Commercial Fast Food)	Attempt on Drive Thru Window. Entry through window on west side of business. Rock was thrown through the window.	Video surveillance shows the following: Between 5:14am and 5:20am 2- B/M on foot approach from the west side. One suspect is wearing a red baseball hat with white letters, blue t-shirt with logo, and dark pants. The second suspect is wearing a black baseball hat, black shirt, black pants, and black shoes with white soles. Both suspects had slender to medium builds and looked to both be about 6 feet in height, age is unknown. Suspects appeared to make one attempt to break in through drive-thru window and then walk away for a short period. Suspects then return and the black male with blue shirt and red hat breaks in through west side window, goes to the counter area, rips the till out of register, and then leaves west on foot with second suspect.
09/17/2015 4:30am	20000 W Eight Mile Rd. (Commercial Discount Store)	Forced open front door.	Store surveillance video shows 2 B/M's enter the store at 4:30am and break open the front manager's office door and look through drawers. They also checked the tills in the aisles in the store for cash. Nothing appeared to be taken by the suspects. The suspects appear to be the same 2 suspects from a B&E that occurred at the Fast Food Restaurant just east of this business overnight. One of the suspects had on a red ball cap, and the other a black ball cap.

Tips:

- ❖ Do not display valuable items in windows when closed for business
